CONTENTS.

Part I.—All Pathan tribes north of the Kabul river and west of the Indus	1 to 51
Part II.—Tribes between the Kabul and Kurram rivers, including the Turis	53 to 99
Part III.—Tribes between the Kurram and Gumal rivers, and those on the Derajat border.	101 to 200
Part IV.—Pathan tribes south of the Gumal, and Tribes, such as the Shiranis, which occupy country on both sides of the border between the North-West Frontier Province and Baluchistan	201 to 262

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

The classification adopted in this dictionary is as follows :—

1. The tribe.
2. The clan of the tribe.
3. The division of the clan.
4. The sub-division of the division.
5. The section of the sub-division.
6. Other minor fractions of the section.

The headings in the dictionary read from the lesser to the greater, thus ;—DADO KHEL are a minor fraction of the Dreplara section, of the Khusrogi sub-division, of the Nasruddin division, of the Zakka Khel clan, of the Afridi tribe.

Figures in brackets indicate the number of the fighting men of the fraction immediately preceding the figures.

The locality of the tribe, clan, or division, etc., is also given within brackets, where this is capable of accurate definition, and is not sufficiently indicated in the name of the tribe, clan, etc. In many cases the names of the headmen have been given.

“GAR” AND “SAMIL.”—These terms refer to the two political factions into which the tribes on the Peshawar and Kohat borders are divided. At some remote period a bitter feud existed between the Gar and Samil branches of the great Bangash tribe, and all the neighbouring tribes appear to have joined one faction or the other ; although the origin of the quarrel has been forgotten the division still remains. .

“SUNNIS” AND “SHIAHS.”—The vast majority of the frontier tribesmen belong to the former sect ; and this may be assumed to be the case where not otherwise expressly stated.

“HAMSAHAS.”—Vassal or dependent settlers, amongst an alien tribe.

This dictionary only gives the Pathan or Pushtu-speaking tribes within the Durand Line. Tribes, which are Afghan subjects, are only mentioned, when the tribe in question dwells on both sides of the border, or when for any reason we have political dealings with it. Also, tribes within the administrative border under our rule are not, in most cases, given in full detail.

The distinction, made by Dr. Bellew, between Afghan and Pathan tribes is not observed in the dictionary, the words, Afghan and Pathan, being taken as practically synonymous terms for the people who call themselves Pashtána (or Pakhtana), plural of Pashtun (or Pakhtun).

APPENDIX I.

The following note by Captain A. H. McMahon, C.S.I., C.I.E., Political Agent, Dir, Swat and Chitral, explains the various spiritual titles and denominations in use among Pathans.

"The denominations under which the descendants of all Muhammadan spiritual leaders come according to Pathan, and I might say Indian (usage), are, in order of spiritual rank, as follows :—

* 1. SAIYADS.—This is the term given to descendants of the Prophet. Owing to their large number and varying circumstances, it does not follow that a Saiyad, as such, is given precedence over other spiritual denominations, but a Saiyad who comes into prominence as a religious man takes precedence of all other religious denominations.

2. MIANS.—These are the descendants of saints and spiritual leaders who have acquired a wide reputation among many tribes, and have a merely local reputation. All Mians are, or are supposed to be, descendants of saints of some past century. The term is not given to descendants of modern saints, but some of these may in course of time become Mians. The remarks made regarding Saiyads apply to Mians also. The principal saints of this class on the northern frontier are ranked as follows :—

(1) Pir Baba of Ilai, Buner (as a Saiyad, he ranks first).

(2) Kaka Sahib of Nowshera.

(3) Hazrat Ji, near Attock.

(4) Mian Umar, at Chamkanui near Peshawar. He died childless, but his disciples have claimed the rank of Mians as if descendants.

(5) Haji Bahadur, of Kohat.

(6) Diwana Baba, of Buner.

NOTE.—(a) The Akhund of Swat does not as yet rank in this class. His descendants are given the title of Miangul by courtesy. They should, strictly speaking, be only Akhundzadas. If

* SAIYADS. A true Saiyad is the descendant of Ali, the son-in-law of Muhammad, by Fatima, Muhammad's daughter. Many of the Pathan tribes, such as the Bangash of Kohat, and the Mishwanis of the Hazara border, claim Saiyad origin. The apostles who completed the conversion of the Pathans to Islam were called Saiyads if they came from the west, and Shekhs if from the east ; hence doubtless, many false claims to Saiyad origin. In Afghanistan the Saiyads have much of the commerce in their hands, as their holy character allows them to pass unharmed, where other Pathans would infallibly be murdered.

SHEKH is an Arabic word meaning elder or chief. It is a title properly confined to tribes of Arab descent, but is very commonly used to denote convert to Islam.

the family keep up their spiritual record, which is doubtful, future descendants may in time be classed as Mians.

(b) The Koreshis * are ranked as Mians.

3. AKHUNDZADAS.—Sometimes known also as Pirzadas. These are descendants of saints of merely local or tribal reputation. Thus we have Akhundzadas of Khal (Dir), of Mayar (Jandol), of Bamboli (Adinzai, Swat), and so on. The descendants of "Mushki Alam" † are classed as Akhundzadas, because Mulla Mushki Alam was himself an Akhundzada, otherwise they would be only Sahibzadas.

4. SAHIBZADAS.—These are descendants of mullas who have gained a reputation for learning or sanctity. As such are classed the descendants of the Kotah Mulla, Manki Mulla, Adda Mulla, Karbogha Mulla, etc.

All of the above classes are, according to Pathan custom, entitled to grants of free land called Seri. The amount of land varies, as a general rule, according to the above-described ranks. Lands on the border between two villages, disputed lands, and lands which for some reason or other are difficult to hold, are generally given as Seri, as the religious status of their holders makes them useful buffers and enables them to enjoy disputed lands in peace."

* Koreshi or Qureshi is the name of the Arab tribe to which the Prophet belonged. The Koreshis of the Punjab are mostly descendants of Balawal Hak, the renowned saint of Multan.

† The religious and military leader of the Ghilzais in the 2nd Afghan War.
